I am pleased to announce the availability of the revised DSS-876: "Request For Forms or Publications" (Rev. 2/96). All other order forms for Department forms or publications are now obsolete. The DSS-876 can be used to order quantities of all forms, documents and publications which are printed by the State Department of Social Services.

The Bureau of Forms and Print Management has recently been established as a consolidated source for all forms ordering, printing, warehousing and distribution in the Department. All forms correspondence which was previously directed to either the WMS forms organization (Office of Customer Support Services, System Support and Information Services) or the Forms Management Unit (Office of Administrative Support Services) should now be directed to the Bureau of Forms and Print Management. The address is:

New York State Department of Social Services
Bureau of Forms and Print Management
P. O. Box 1990
Albany, New York 12201

Supplies of the "Request For Forms or Publications" can be obtained by writing to this address.

An electronic version of the DSS-876 can be found in the Department's Electronic Library. To access the electronic Forms Management forms in ELIB:

1. Select File Drawer "E-Form - Electronic Forms"
2. Select File "FORMS MGMT - Department Printed Forms"

The third form listed, "DSS-876EL: To Order Copies of Forms" is the "Request For Forms or Publications".

Please Note: At this time we cannot accept electronic orders for supplies of forms or documents. In the near future, once the required equipment and procedures are installed, we will have this capability. You will be informed when this service is in place.
