APPLICANT/RECIPIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES FOR SNAP

Additional information regarding your rights and responsibilities is contained in the Client Information Books (LDSS-4148A; LDSS-4148B and LDSS-4148C). These books can be obtained at your social services district, and on-line.

YOU HAVE RIGHTS:

- As an Applicant/Recipient of SNAP you must be interviewed as promptly as possible in order to determine eligibility and to issue benefits within 30 days of application filing.
- You may request that the in-office interview be waived in hardship situations. Hardship generally includes, but is not limited to, illness, transportation difficulties, care of a household member, hardship due to residency in a rural area, prolonged severe weather, or work or training hours that prevent you from coming in during the social services district's office hours. The in-office interview will be waived, at your request, if all the adult members of your household are elderly or disabled with no earned income. The agency may waive the in-office interview in favor of a telephone interview or scheduled home visit. In-person interviews may be scheduled in advance at any mutually acceptable location including a household's residence.
- You may bring someone to your interview to interpret for you. If you need an interpreter, the agency will arrange for one at no cost to you. You cannot be denied access to services because you are not fluent in English or hearing or speech impaired. Social Services districts may utilize the TTY/TTD relay systems to gain access to services for hearing or speech impaired applicants/recipients. If you have any special needs you can request special accommodations from your social services district.
- If you have a disability, you have the same right to access and be interviewed for SNAP as someone who does not have a disability.
- Within 30 days of the date you filed your completed application and interview for SNAP, you must be told if your application is approved or denied. If you are eligible for expedited processing you must be told within 5 days after the date you turned in your application if you are qualified for SNAP and/or advised if additional documentation is needed.
- You must be given a written notice telling you if your application for SNAP is approved or denied:
 - If your Application is approved, this notice will tell you the amount of SNAP benefits you will get;
 - If your Application is denied, this notice will tell you why and what you should do if you disagree or do not understand this decision.

WHAT IS A FAIR HEARING

A Fair Hearing is a chance for you to tell an Administrative Law Judge from the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance why you think the social services district's decision about your case was wrong. After the Fair Hearing, the State will issue a written decision which will state whether the social services district's decision was right or wrong. The written decision may order the social services district to correct your case.

TIME LIMITS TO ASK FOR A FAIR HEARING

If you want to ask for a Fair Hearing for SNAP, call right away because there are time limits. If you wait too long, you may not be able to get a Fair Hearing. If you get a notice about your case and you want to ask for a Fair Hearing, the notice will tell you how much time you have to ask for the Fair Hearing. Be sure to read all of the notice carefully. If your notice tells you that your SNAP benefits have been denied, will be stopped or will be reduced, you may ask for a Fair Hearing within 90 days from the date of the notice. You may ask for a Fair Hearing if you think you are not getting enough SNAP benefits at any time within the certification period.

Fair Hearing Section

NYS Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance

Fair Hearings

P.O. Box 1930

Albany, New York 12201-1930 Please keep a copy of any notice for yourself

Walk-In: If you live in New York City you may also make your request in person by walking into the Office of Administrative Hearings, Office of Temporary & Disability Assistance, 14 Boerum Place, Brooklyn, New York

EMERGENCY - If your situation is very serious, the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance will set up a Fair Hearing for you as soon as possible. When you call or write for a Fair Hearing, be sure to explain that your situation is very serious.

NOTE: For New York City emergency fair hearings only – Call 800-205-0110. Do not use this telephone number for anything except emergencies. Requests that do not involve emergencies will not be taken at this number.

INTERPRETERS – You have the right to an interpreter at no cost to you, if English is not your primary language, or if you are hearing or speech impaired.

AID CONTINUING - If you get a notice telling you that your benefits will be stopped or reduced, and you ask for a Fair Hearing before the effective date on your notice, your SNAP benefits will, in most instances, stay the same ("aid continuing") until the Fair Hearing decision is made. If you do not get a notice about your case, and your benefits are stopped or reduced, at the same time that you ask for a Fair Hearing, you can ask that your SNAP benefits be restored ("aid continuing") until the Fair Hearing decision is made.

However, if you get "aid continuing" and you lose the Fair Hearing, you may have to pay back any benefits that you received as "aid continuing" while waiting for the Fair Hearing decision. If you do not want the SNAP benefits you have been getting to stay the same until the Fair Hearing decision is made, you must tell this to the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance when you call or write for a Fair Hearing.

HOW TO PREPARE FOR A FAIR HEARING

The New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance will send you a notice, which tells you when and where the Fair Hearing will be held. To help you get ready for the Fair Hearing, you have the right to look at your case record and get free copies of the forms and papers which will be given to the Administrative Law Judge at the Fair Hearing. You can also get free copies of any other papers in your case record which you think you may need for the Fair Hearing. Usually, you can get these papers before the hearing or at the hearing at the latest. If you ask for any papers related to your hearing, and the social services district does not give them to you before or at the hearing, you should tell the Administrative Law Judge about it.

You should also bring to the Fair Hearing any witnesses who can help you and any information you have such as: Pay stubs, Bills, Receipts, Leases, Doctor's statements, to help you explain why you think the social services district's decision is wrong.

You can bring a lawyer, a relative or a friend to the Fair Hearing to help you explain why you think a social services district's decision about your case is wrong. If you think you need a lawyer to help you with your Fair Hearing, you may be able to get a lawyer at no cost to you by calling your local Legal Aid or Legal Services Office. For the names of other lawyers, call your local Bar Association.

Someone from the social services district will also be at the Fair Hearing to explain the social services district's decision about your case. You or your representative will be able to question this person and any witnesses from the social services district.

If you cannot go to the Fair Hearing, you can send someone else in your place. If you are sending someone who is not a lawyer to the Fair Hearing, you must give this person a letter to give to the Administrative Law Judge. This letter should tell the Judge that you want this person to take your place at the Fair Hearing. If the Administrative Law Judge decides that your presence is required, and your testimony is necessary, the hearing may be re-scheduled for another day for you to appear. You will be notified of the new day by mail.

NOTE: If you ask, you will be able to get back the money you had to pay for public transportation, child care and other necessary expenses to go to the fair hearing. If no public transportation is available, you may be able to get back the money you had to pay for another type of transportation. If you are unable to use public transportation because of a medical problem, you may be able to get back the money you had to pay for another type of transportation. However, you may be asked to provide medical verification.

TO LOOK AT YOUR CASE AND COMPUTER RECORDS:

Once you apply for SNAP or other help, case records and computer records are kept about your case. Usually, you have the right to look at those records. However, you may not be able to look at all of the records. Your worker can explain the rules to you.

When you write for copies of your computer records, the Personal Privacy Protection Law requires that New York State agencies, send you your records; or tell you why they will not give you your records; or tell you they have your request and they will determine if you are allowed to get your records within five working days of when they get your request letter.

AS AN APPLICANT/RECIPIENT OF SNAP YOU HAVE SEVERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:Employment Requirements for SNAP Applicants and Recipients

Unless you are exempt from work registration requirements, you must:

- Accept a job or a referral to a job opening
- Participate in an assessment of your ability to work
- Provide information regarding your employment status and availability for work
- Participate in work activities as assigned by the social services district

You are a work registrant and required to comply with work requirements unless you are determined by the social services official to be:

- Younger than 16 years of age or 60 years of age or older
- Mentally or physically disabled, incapacitated or ill and unable to engage in work activities
- Responsible for the care of a dependent child under the age of six. If you are participating in work experience under a federally-funded Temporary Assistance program, this exemption from SNAP work requirements does not apply.

- Subject to and complying with a work requirement under a federally funded Temporary Assistance program. If you are assigned to work experience, this exemption from SNAP work requirements does not apply.
- Responsible for the full-time care of an incapacitated person
- An applicant for or recipient of Unemployment Insurance Benefits
- A regular participant in a drug or alcohol treatment program and the social services official determines that you are unable to work or that assignment to work activities is impractical
- A student enrolled at least half-time in a recognized school, training program or institution of higher education
- Employed at least 30 hours a week or earning at least the equivalent of 30 times the federal minimum wage per week
- An applicant for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and SNAP benefits under the joint processing provisions
- A 16 or 17 year old individual who is not the head of household or who is attending school or an employment program at least half-time

If you fail to comply with a SNAP work assignment or quit a job, you may lose your SNAP benefits. The length of time you will lose your benefits depends on the number of times you have failed to comply with a work requirement.

Additional Work Requirements for SNAP Recipients who are Able-Bodied Adults without Dependents (ABAWDs)

If you are a work registrant/subject to SNAP work requirements, you also must meet additional SNAP eligibility requirements unless you are:

- Under 18 years of age or 50 years of age or older;
- Living in a SNAP household that includes a member who is under 18 years of age;
- Pregnant; or
- Unable to work at least 80 hours a month due to a physical or mental limitation.

If you are a work registrant and not exempt due to one of the reasons listed above you are only eligible to receive SNAP benefits for three months in a 36 month period unless you:

- Work (including "in-kind" work and volunteer work) for at least 80 hours per month;
- Participate in a qualifying work/training program approved by the social services district for at least 80 hours per month;
- Comply with a Work Experience Program (WEP) assignment for the number of hours equal to your SNAP grant divided by the higher of the federal or State minimum wage;
- Participate in a program under the Workforce Investment Opportunity Act which may include job search, job readiness, occupational skills training and education activities, or the Trade Act of 1974 for at least 80 hours per month; or,
- Participate in a combination of work or qualifying work programs for at least 80 hours per month.

If an ABAWD wants to receive SNAP benefits beyond the 3 month limit and is unable to secure paid employment of at least 80 hours a month, he/she should contact the social services district to discuss what work or work programs may be available to permit the ABAWD to meet the work requirement.

If an ABAWD does not meet the work requirement and loses eligibility for SNAP, he/she may be able to receive SNAP again, if otherwise eligible, and should contact the social services district to discuss what he/she needs to do to regain SNAP eligibility.

In addition, the ABAWD must provide documentation of participation in unpaid work activities on a monthly basis and report to the social services district within 10 days after the end of the month if his/her work hours go below 80 hours a month.

READ THE IMPORTANT INFORMATION BELOW (cont'd)IF YOU ARE SUSPECTED OF FRAUD

If you find out that you are being investigated because your worker thinks you did not tell the truth about your case, you should talk to a lawyer. If you are charged with welfare fraud in criminal court, the court will, if you are eligible, assign a lawyer to represent you at no cost.

RESPONSIBILITY TO RESCHEDULE A MISSED INTERVIEW:

As an Applicant/Recipient of SNAP, you are responsible to reschedule a missed interview before the 30th day after the date you applied to avoid losing SNAP.

RESPONSIBILITY TO PROVIDE PROOF

When you are applying for SNAP, you will be asked to provide proof of certain things. Your worker will advise you of what is needed. Document requirements may vary for different assistance programs. If the social services district already has proof of certain things that do not change such as social security number, you do not need to prove it again.

By having proof of identity and other important documents when you first apply for assistance, you may be able to get help sooner.

If you are dropping off documents at your social services office, ask for a receipt which should include the district name, your name, the date, time, list of each specific document being left, and the name of the worker giving you the receipt.

You must provide the proof that your worker tells you is needed to have your eligibility for SNAP determined. If you have trouble getting the requested proof, make it known to your worker.
