Child care subsidies are provided by social services districts to enable a parent or caretaker to work or engage in other approved activities. Among the programs available is Child Care in Lieu of Temporary Assistance (aka Child Care in Lieu of Cash Assistance) which helps working families who are financially eligible to receive Temporary Assistance but choose to receive child care benefits in lieu of cash assistance.

Effective October 24, 2013, a new Fair Hearing Information System (FHIS) issue code was established as follows:

019 Child Care in lieu of Cash Assistance

This code is for statewide use. Communications Intake Staff should refer to the coding below when processing a request related to this issue.

For denials:
