or, has not provided consent or revoked consent to disclose treatment information to the agency.

A RECOUPMENT at the rate of _____ percent (%) is being taken against your Public Assistance. The reason for this recoupment is: _____ . If you believe the recoupment at this rate will cause your family an undue hardship, you should contact your worker to explain your reason. An undue hardship means that a person does not have enough income to eat, to pay for shelter or utilities, to get necessary clothing, to buy general items of need, or to pay for medical needs not covered by Medical Assistance. Your worker will let you know what kind of proof you will need to show that the recoupment at this rate will cause an undue hardship. If we decide that the recoupment will cause an undue hardship, the recoupment rate will be changed to a rate between 5 and 10%. The recoupment rate must be at least 5%. This decision is based on 18 NYCRR 352.31(d).

To Lift a Sanction for Non-cooperation with a Child Support Requirement

A sanction for non-cooperation with a child support requirement is open-ended and will continue until _____ contacts the Child Support Enforcement Unit and cooperates.

When _____ contacts the Child Support Enforcement Unit, he or she will be told what action(s) must be taken to end the sanction. The sanction will end when he or she takes the required actions(s). If _____ did not cooperate but now wants to report a good reason for not cooperating with child support he or she should call (_____) _____.

Some examples of a good reason for not cooperating with child support are:

- fear of emotional or physical harm to you or the children in your family; or,
- the child was born due to rape or incest; or,
- the child is freed for adoption; or, you are now being assisted by an agency to determine whether to put the child up for adoption and discussions have not gone on for more than three months.

To find out more information about how to end the sanction, call (_____) _____.

- Social Services can give you education and counseling about birth control and can assist you in getting medical care to help you plan for your desired family or to prevent unwanted pregnancies.

Even if your application for Public Assistance or Medical Assistance was denied, Social Services may provide information and education about family planning for up to 90 days from the date you applied.

For further information, please contact your services worker or call the general phone number on the front of this notice.

- If you know of children under the age of 19 who do not have health care coverage, call 1-800-698-4543 to learn about Child Health Plus coverage.
- Regulations require that you immediately notify this Department of any changes in needs, income, resources, living arrangements or address.
- Although you may no longer be able to get Public Assistance, SNAP Benefits or Medical Assistance, you still may be able to get help with your heating costs by applying for the Home Energy Assistance Program (HEAP). You can get more information on HEAP by calling the general telephone number on the front page of this notice.
